

"He'll be a United States Senator some day," was his grandfather's prophecy when, on August 27, 1908, Lyndon Baines Johnson was born near Stonewall, Texas.

His ambition, following graduation from Southwest Texas State Teachers College in 1930, was to teach. Two years later, however, he accepted the position as secretary to Representative Richard Kleberg in Washington, D.C., and entered the political world.

Following a courtship of two days in 1934, he proposed and, ten weeks later, married Claudia Alta Taylor, known as Lady Bird.

In 1937, with a $10,000 loan from her father, Lyndon Johnson made his first attempt for elective office, winning a seat in the House of Representatives and the attention of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

With the President's help and the guidance of fellow Texan Sam Rayburn, Lyndon's career advanced steadily.

As a naval reserve officer, he obtained leave from the House following Pearl Harbor and served on a three-man commission inspecting southwest Pacific conditions. In mid-1942, Roosevelt ordered him back to the House.

In 1948, fulfilling his grandfather's prophecy, he was elected to the United States Senate by 87 votes out of one million cast. Before his first term ended, he had become Minority Leader and, in the 1954 Democratic Congress, moved up as Majority Leader.

In 1955, he suffered a serious heart attack which threatened his career. Following doctor's orders, however, he recovered fully and, in 1960, was elected vice-president on the John F. Kennedy ticket.

When Kennedy was assassinated on November 22, 1963, Johnson moved up to become the 36th President of the United States, going on in 1964 to win the largest popular vote majority ever given a presidential candidate.

As president, Lyndon Johnson continues to seek solutions to the many national and international problems confronting him while, in election year 1968, he takes his case once more to the people.

Motels at Hot Springs Auctioned

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Three Hot Springs residents purchased the HomeTown and Jack Tar motels in downtown Hot Springs at an auction Thursday.

The HomeTown was sold subject to a first mortgage of $350,000 held by Republic National Life Insurance Co. of Dallas but the Jack Tar was sold clear of any mortgages or liens.

I. Granger McDaniel, Dr. George Queen and Kenneth Ellsworth, all investors in the property, bid $50,000 for the real property, $1,000 for the personal property and $1,000 for the hotel property.

The three Hot Springs buyers were the only bidders. They had secured a judgment of $645,000 plus interest and attorney fees against the Home-Towner owner, Mrs. Gladys Warren Davis of Springfield, Mo.

Dorothy Hayden's book entitled "Bid Better. Play Better" has just appeared in a paper-back edition. Like all bridge books, we can't endorse everything in it, but we can state that there is a great deal of good bridge common sense in it.

Today's hand, taken from it, shows how to bid a grand slam by locating specific cards in partner's hand by cue bids.

Some players wouldn't open the South hand with a forcing bid. The Jacobys aren't included in that group. True, you can set up a North hand that won't let South make game somewhere, but bridge players should not wait for absolute certainties.

Once South does open with two spades, North is interested in a slam but should not make any really aggressive move. Instead he should raise to three spades to show strength and spade support.

two key cards—the ace of diamonds and the king of clubs. Blackwood will let him find out how many aces and kings North holds, but he doesn't care about how many. He needs to know about those two special cards.

He bids four clubs and North should go to four diamonds. This bid clearly shows the ace. North has already set spades as the suit. South follows with four hearts to show first round heart control. It makes no difference to North whether South is showing the ace or a void. North should bid five clubs. Once more, North isn't trying to get into clubs. He is showing second round control.

This is enough for South. He goes to the grand slam and spreads his hand as soon as East follows to the first trick.

Going After Classic at Santa Anita

By ED SCHUYLER JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Last Saturday, Australian-bred Tobin Bronze won a race named after Irish-bred Azucar. This Saturday, Tobin Bronze will try to do something Azucar did in 1935—win the $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap.

The 6-year-old Australian champion will carry high weight of 124 pounds in the expected field of 15 for the 1 1/4-mile Santa Anita classic.

It will be Tobin Bronze's third start on the dirt after 47 races over the grass. Tobin Bronze was a disappointing seventh in his debut on the dirt in the 1 1/4-mile San Antonio Stakes two weeks ago, but he looked good in winning the 1 1/4-mile Azucar Purse over the dirt last Saturday.

Tobin Bronze, owned by William Brelviand and Irving Litz, will be part of a three-horse, Charles Whittingham-trained entry. He will be coupled in the betting with Rock Springs and Langlien Farms' Tumble Wind, who will carry 122 pounds and figures to be one of Tobin Bronze's toughest rivals, and Mary F. Jones' Duncan Junction, assigned 114 pounds.

Other big races Saturday are the 1 1/4-mile, $50,000-added Donn Handicap at Gulfstream Park; the $25,000 seven-furlong $25,000-added Bowie Handicap at Bowie and the $15,000 Fair Grounds Oaks for 3-year-old fillies over 1 1/4 miles at the New Orleans Fair Grounds.

Wood Beams Soar Out 80 Feet

Gigantic Weyerhaeuser laminated wood beams soar 80 feet unsupported over a seating section in the University of Oregon's new Autzen Stadium in Eugene. The $2.3 million stadium, designed to seat 41,000 fans, opened last fall.

Each of the 12 wooden glaze weighs 21 tons and is 125 feet long. The beams are eight feet wide at one end and narrow to three feet at the other. From the supporting concrete abutment the beams cantilever over the stadium area eliminating the need for view-obstructing support posts. The 15-inch-wide beams are placed 18 feet apart. Each beam had to be fabricated in two sections and then bolted together to form a single structural member.

Baseball '68: Heroes, Has-beens

By IRA BERKOW NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK — (NEA) — At one time, Detroit's first basemen were two of the most feared batters in baseball. Now, Norm Cash and Eddie Mathews cause concern to pitchers, but not necessarily alarm.

Hope that Cash and Mathews can return to some of their past prowess has stimulated a number of experts to pick the Tigers for first place this coming season.

Until last season, Cash had averaged 32 homers per year for the previous six seasons. He reached his peak in 1961 with 41 homers, 132 RBIs and a .361 batting average. Cash, now 33, dropped to 22 homers, 72 RBIs and a .242 batting average. Those totals were his lowest since he became a Tiger regular in 1960.

Mathews, 36, is a 17-year veteran. He was one of the game's greatest home run hitters as a third baseman for the Braves. He began last season with the Houston Astros, and was traded to the Tigers. He hit .238 with 10 homers and drove in 38 runs in 101 games. With Detroit, in 36 games, he struck six homers, drove in 19 runs and batted .231.

Mathews played a majority of the games last season at first base. And Don Wert is set at third for Detroit. It's up to the two former stars, Cash and Mathews, to hold up their corner of the infield. If they do, they just might slug Detroit to its first pennant in 23 years.

Two other American Leaguers, once prominent in slugging circles, are hanging on with pennant contenders. They are catcher Elston Howard of Boston and outfielder Bob Allison of Minnesota.

For years Howard was the top catcher in the league with the Yankees. Last season he was traded to Boston and provided needed backstop support for the Red Sox' championship drive.

But Howard is now 37. He can still handle pitchers well, of course. However, his work at the plate is another matter. In 66 games for New York last year, he hit three homers, drove in 17 runs and had a .196 batting average. He played 42 games for Boston, hitting just one homer, driving in 11 runs and finished with a .147 average.

Allison, after several fine seasons with the Washington Senators and later when the club moved to Minnesota, experienced a bit of a comeback after a dismal year in 1966. He batted .220 that season, and had eight homers and 19 RBIs, the lowest totals of his career. But last season he performed well in many clutch situations and finished the year with 24 homers, 75 RBIs and a .258 average.

Allison, 33, may not be at the end of his line, as some have been predicting for the past few seasons.

HOT STOVE LEAGUE

Those who think that the "hot stove league" vanished with the general store pot-bellied stove and the cracker barrel just haven't wandered into a local fishing tackle emporium lately.

This institution still functions throughout the U.S., say the fishing experts at Mercury Outdoors. After all, the average red-blooded American has to have a place to hang out and discuss topics of mutual interest with his fellow man.

As a kid, he had a club house on a vacant lot, or a little platform built in the old apple tree in the backyard. As a teenager the local drug store soda fountain, or a particular street corner sufficed for a hang-out.

Adults require similar spots to satisfy their togetherness instincts. Women do their gabbing in the beauty parlor, or over a card table at the weekly afternoon bridge session. Fishermen, however, have another alternative.

Almost any sporting goods store has a spot where a group of men can gather around and compare notes about fish and fishing. Here a man can look, listen and learn.

As a member of the local hot stove league he can finger a new lure, or flex a new rod without a cent in his pocket. He can listen to the big boys, compare notes with fellow anglers, learn to stretch the truth in telling about his own fishing exploits, and find out where the best fishing holes are.

Membership in this great angling fraternity is not regulated by income, position, or a man's ancestors. All he needs to become initiated into this organization is to prove that he's as anxious to get out on the water as the others. If he's a fisherman, he's welcome to pull up a chair and become a member of the group.

So, men, if you're not already a member of your local angler's hot stove league, the Mercury lads suggest you go down to the tackle store and join up.

Of course, it won't compare with actually being out on the water, but remember, the next thing to fishing is talking about it.

Casey, a Sioux all-time hockey great, was killed in an auto crash last July 7 in Montana. He was a native of Great Falls, Mont.

Money received in the fund collection, sponsored by the UND athletic department, will be placed in a trust fund for the health, education and welfare of Casey's daughter, Terry Lee, born last Oct. 15.

Attaway's Outdoor Notebook

NEW YORK — (NEA) — It didn't make much sense, stabling a schoolteacher from Georgia in the back with a tax to discourage her from spending 500 lire to get into the Vatican Museum. This is the way to square off the balance of payments?

Within 24 hours recently, two announcements were made that should encourage nomenclatures with the news Europeans to travel in the that it was setting up a free United States and bring some counseling service for foreign of those errant dollars home. sportsmen.

One of those announcements J. R. ("Jack") Peat, divi- was aimed directly at the sion vice president in charge sport-starved continental of Winchester Adventures, Inc., spilled the beans during an informal press conference in the Hunt Room (where else?) at 21.

"Let's face it," Peat said, "in the past the European sportsman has often been confused and discouraged by both the lack of readily available knowledge and the red tape confronting the foreign visitor intent on field sports in this country. We hope to provide just such a service to what is a potentially vast group of tourists."

Any foreign sportsman seeking information and advice on hunting and fishing in the Western Hemisphere can write to Jack Peat's pet project: Winchester World-Wide Safaris, 275 Winchester Ave., New Haven, Conn.

"We feel the sporting industry in America must make contributions to the President's request for increased emphasis on European travel to the States. We've got a lot to offer these foreign sportsmen... and we think it's our duty to help them find a way to enjoy American sports."

Can't you just see it? A guy in lederhosen tramping after pheasant in South Dakota? Or a turbaned sheik sipping crawfish stew in the bayous? The political—as well as economic—ramifications are endless. It could be the most important people-to-people program yet devised.

LEGAL NOTICE

HOPE SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1-A

P. O. Box 488

HOPE, ARKANSAS 71801

NOTICE OF SCHOOL DESEGREGATION PLAN UNDER TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

THIS NOTICE IS MADE AVAILABLE TO INFORM YOU ABOUT THE DESEGREGATION OF OUR SCHOOLS. KEEP A COPY OF THIS NOTICE. IT WILL ANSWER MANY QUESTIONS ABOUT SCHOOL DESEGREGATION.

1. DESEGREGATION PLAN IN EFFECT

The HOPE public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.

2. THIRTY-DAY SPRING CHOICE PERIOD

Each student or his parent, or other adult person acting as parent, is required to choose the school the student will attend next school year. The choice period will begin on March 11, and close April 10, 1968.

3. EXPLANATORY LETTERS AND SCHOOL CHOICE FORMS

On the first day of the choice period, an explanatory letter and this notice will be sent to the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student then in the schools who is expected to attend school the following school year. A school choice form will be sent with each letter. Additional copies of the letter, this notice and the choice form are freely available to the public at any school and at the Superintendent's office.

4. RETURNING THE CHOICE FORMS

Parents and students, at their option, may return the completed choice forms by hand to any school or by mail to the Superintendent's office, at any time during the 30-day choice period. No preference will be given for choosing early during the choice period. A choice is required for each student. No assignment to a school can be made unless a choice is made first.

5. CHOICE FORM INFORMATION

The school choice form lists the names, locations and grades offered for each school. The reasons for any choice made are not to be stated. The form asks for the name, address and age of the student, the school and grade currently or last attended, the school chosen for the following year, the appropriate signature, and whether the form has been signed by the student or his parent. Any letter or other written communication which identifies the student and the school he wishes to attend will be deemed just as valid as if submitted on the choice form supplied by the school system. The names of students and the schools they choose or are assigned to under the plan will not be made public by school officials.

6. COURSE AND PROGRAM INFORMATION

To guide students and parents in making a choice of school, listed below, by schools, are the courses and programs which are not given in every school in this school system.

7. SIGNING THE CHOICE FORM

A choice form may be signed by a parent or other adult person acting as parent. A student who has reached the age of 15 at the time of choice, or will next enter the ninth or any higher grade, may sign his own choice form. The student's choice shall be controlling unless a different choice is exercised by his parent before the end of the period during which the student exercises his choice.

8. PROCESSING OF CHOICES

No choice will be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In cases where granting all choices for any school would cause overcrowding, the students choosing the school who live closest to it will be assigned to that school. Whenever a choice is to be denied, overcrowding will be determined by a uniform standard applicable to all schools in the system.

9. NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT, SECOND CHOICE

All students and their parents will be promptly notified in writing of their school assignments. Should any student be denied his choice because of overcrowding he will be promptly notified and given a choice among all other schools in the system where space is available.

10. STUDENTS MOVING INTO THE COMMUNITY

A choice of school for any student who will be new to the school system may be made during the 30-day choice period or at any other time before he enrolls in school. An explanatory letter, this notice and the school choice form will be given out for each new student as soon as the school system knows about the student. At least seven days will be allowed for the return of the choice form when a choice is made after the 30-day choice period. A choice must be made for each student. No assignment to any school can be made unless a choice is made first.

11. STUDENTS ENTERING FIRST GRADE

The parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of every child entering the first grade is required to choose the school his child will attend. Choices will be made under the same free choice process used for students new to the school system in other grades, as provided in paragraph 10.

12. PRIORITY OF LATE CHOICES

No choice made after the end of the 30-day choice period may be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In the event of overcrowding, choices made during the 30-day choice period will have first priority. Overcrowding will be determined by the standard provided for in paragraph 8. Any parent or student whose first choice is denied because of overcrowding will be given a second choice in the manner provided for in paragraph 9.

13. TESTS, HEALTH RECORDS AND OTHER ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Any academic tests or other procedures used in assigning students to schools, grades, classrooms, sections, courses of study, or for any other purpose, will be applied uniformly to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No choice of school will be denied because of failure at the time of choice to provide any health record, birth certificate, or other document. The student will be tentatively assigned in accordance with the plan and the choice made, and given ample time to obtain any required document. Curriculum, credit, and promotion procedures will not be applied in such a way as to hamper freedom of choice of any student.

14. CHOICES ONCE MADE CANNOT BE ALTERED

Once a choice has been submitted, it may not be changed, even though the choice period has not ended. The choice is binding for the entire school year to which it applies, except in the case of (1) compelling hardship, (2) change of residence to a place where another school is closer, (3) the availability of a school designed to fit the special needs of a physically handicapped student, (4) the availability at another school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.

15. ALL OTHER ASPECTS OF SCHOOLS DESEGREGATED

All school-connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs are open to all on a desegregated basis. A student attending school for the first time on a desegregated basis may not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished for the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Facilities will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.

16. ATTENDANCE ACROSS SCHOOL SYSTEM LINES

No arrangement will be made, or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No arrangement will be made, or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in another school system to attend school in this system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin.

17. VIOLATIONS TO BE REPORTED

It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence or dissuade any person from choosing a school where a desegregated education can be obtained, or to threaten any person with penalties or promise favors for any choice made. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the free making of a choice of a desegregated school. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Equal Educational Opportunities Program, U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C. 20202 (telephone 202-963-0333). The name of any person reporting any violation will not be disclosed without his consent. Any other violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements, and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of State or local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If State or local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of the violation should report them immediately to the U.S. Office of Education at the above address or phone number.

Telling Congressmen

Delay of days or weeks in the mail delivery of newspapers, noticed by subscribers for many months, has aroused newspaper publishers. But after lodging complaints with the Post Office Department in Washington, their spokesman, Otto R. Seidel of the Salt Lake City Tribune, said: "The word we get is that the post office just doesn't give a damn about the newspapers anymore."

Perhaps if newspaper subscribers will get in touch with their congressmen they can get some action. Complaining at the post office obviously will do no good. Deterioration of the mails has been permitted to go much too far by a complacent public. — Shreveport (La.) Journal

When Fields Are Green

Many years ago, when the winter landscape in the South was marred almost everywhere by bleak old fallow broomsedge fields and eroded, red gullied land, the late Hugh MacRae, a far-seeing farmer and industrialist from Wilmington, said: "The South will come into its own when its fields are green in winter."...

Thanks to Mr. MacRae and other progressive farm leaders and agencies, the fields of the South are becoming greener and greener nowadays, not only with hay and pasture grasses for increasing dairy and beef cattle herds, but also with the green of flourishing winter vegetable and grain crops.

Yet the surface of this rich field of opportunity has scarcely been more than scratched. The rural South still has a long way to go before enough of its winter fields are green. But luckily it is on its way. — Winston-Salem (N.C.) Twin City Sentinel

What They Do Not Fear

The Communist assaults have been raging again within Saigon, and other South Vietnamese cities. Not only are military targets being hit but Red bestiality is taking a civilian toll.

The Communists do not fear today, however, that a single American bomb will be aimed at destroying their key supply facilities at Haiphong, that the port will be obstructed, mined or blockaded. They do not fear attack upon still unhit Red jet fighter bases. They do not wonder for a moment whether we seek victory and their defeat.

Is there any wonder they attack with such impunity? — Chattanooga (Tenn.) News Free Press

Cotton Farm Can Reduce Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department said Thursday that any cotton-producing farm — be it privately or publicly owned — has had a right to reduce its production the last two years and get federal payments for doing it.

In 1966 and 1967 the department offered payments to cotton farms which underplanted their cotton acreage allotments by specified amounts.

The objective of the payment program was to curtail production until a cotton surplus was disposed of, which has happened.

Officials provided this information in confirming that a state prison farm in Lincoln County, Ark., has received payments under the cotton program. Officials said this farm has had a long history as a cotton producer and chose to go along with the department's program of reducing production.

Officials said they did not have records here of the amount of payments to this or any other farm. They said such records are kept in the counties where the farms are located.

The payment program calling for underplanting of cotton allotments is a voluntary one. But benefits of the curtailment program, which includes eligibility for price support on a farm's cotton — are available to all farms choosing to go along with the program.

Students Rebel in Poland

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Despite attempts by plain-clothes reserve militiamen to disperse them, several thousand Warsaw University students assembled on campus today to demand reinstatement of two expelled students.

Seven busloads of militiamen failed to break up the midday demonstration that lasted two hours. Prorector Zygmunt Rybicki finally got the students to disperse by promising a "frank and most sincere" meeting with them next week.

It took Rybicki about an hour to calm the 4,000 to 5,000 students who had assembled in an arcade between the rectorate and the library. Speaking through a hand-microphone, Rybicki first told the students they had gathered without permission.

The students shouted: "Freedom! Freedom! Constitution!" and demanded "guarantees" that there would be immunity for their delegation.

The meeting was called to protest the arrest and subsequent expulsion from school of two students who had participated in a demonstration against the forced closure by Communist authorities of a popular play.

Planes Don't Bother Church for Deaf

By FRANK MURRAY
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A church abandoned because buzzing planes at the nation's busiest airport drowned out the prayers and sermons has become home base for a jet age circuit preacher's silent ministry.

Only the deaf worship now in the Rev. Walter Busby's 40-member parish, unique in Florida.

They aren't disturbed by noise from landings and takeoffs at suburban Opa-Locka Airport, busiest in the nation with 596,949 landings or takeoffs last year. The planes' approach takes them directly over the weathered white cross on the Spanish tile roof of the church.

The Lutheran pastor has all five senses but gives his sermons, the liturgy of the service and leads prayer and hymns with the hand language of the deaf.

Behind the free-standing altar — turned so he can face his parishioners as they read his fingers — Pastor Busby folds his hands to say, "Let us pray."

Another Lutheran congregation built and used the adobe-colored building in which Trinity Deaf Zion now worships. But Harry F. Laduke, president of the earlier congregation, said "Our church body decided in 1960 that, with the airfield flight pattern being right over the roof, and our fronting on busy Northwest 27th Avenue, the noise Sunday after Sunday was affecting our attendance."

Laduke advertised in local newspapers and the first inquiry was from a representative of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon). "I explained to him the noise and confusion that caused us to want to sell," Laduke said. "He went away and never came back."

Eventually, an ad led to purchase of the building for more than $40,000 by the National Deaf Zion of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Services at Trinity Deaf Zion are in the evenings, Sunday and Wednesday, because Pastor Busby ministers each Sunday morning to other deaf congregations — in Tampa, 200 flying miles away, and Pensacola, about 500 miles away.

In his official church role as missionary to the deaf in Florida since 1966, Pastor Busby also goes to north Florida for visits to five children at Sunland Training Center for the retarded in Marianna, services for 35 deaf patients at Chattahoochee State Mental Hospital, and to hold service and Monday Bible classes for 95 children at the Florida School for the Deaf.

Death Due to Ruptured Appendix

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Former House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. died of peritonitis resulting from a ruptured appendix, a Broward County medical examiner said Thursday.

Martin, who served 42 years in the House and was twice its speaker, was pronounced dead at Hollywood Memorial Hospital after collapsing at the home of relatives in Fort Lauderdale. He was 83.

Martin's body was returned to Massachusetts Thursday night for funeral services and burial in his home town of North Attleboro.

Firebombs Hurlled Into White Stores

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Firebombs were hurled into two white-owned stores in Gainesville's Negro district early today. Another was found in the backseat of an automobile.

And a vacant house was destroyed by a fire police said they believed was deliberately set.

Since Jan. 1, police said 10 firebomb attacks were reported, most of them in predominantly Negro sections. But two firebombs were hurled into the homes of white city officials.

This Benefit Is Different

MONROE STATION, Fla. (AP) — A benefit in most places usually means climbing into a tight tux and apologizing to your stomach for the chicken-salad-making you're forced to inflict on it.

It means something different in this swamp town. The dress is anything but black tie and the fare will include 30,000 pounds of wild hog, swamp cabbage, black-eyed peas and what the sponsors describe as "other delicacies." Proceeds from the food, alligator wrestling and turkey shoot this weekend go toward conserving the everglades.

All Bodies Recovered From Mine

By VERNON A. GUIDRY JR.
Associated Press Writer
CALUMET, La. (AP) — The bodies of 21 men who perished in the caverns of a salt mine have been found and efforts were under way today to learn the cause of the fire that killed them.

The four-day search came to an end Friday. Sixteen bodies were found huddled together in a tunnel 3,000 feet from the mine shaft. The other five were located a few hours later. Officials for Cargill, Inc., which owns the mine did not disclose the exact spot.

The tragedy struck eight months after the Federal Bureau of Mines recommended a sister shaft be sunk to provide better ventilation, an escape route and various fire controls.

H. A. Schrengost, a bureau official in Indianapolis, Ind., said the recommendations were made by A. M. Evans, a mining engineer from the Dallas suburb, after an "observation walk-through" last August.

In Minneapolis, W. R. Pearce, a Cargill vice president, said the company requested the inspection and that some recommendations were followed, with others "in the process of approval and implementation."

Jim Bowe, a public relations man for the mining company, added Friday night, "there was no specific suggestion in the entire observation which could have prevented the fire..."

Raymond R. Ashby, a coal mine safety expert from Kentucky who was on the mine floor when the first 16 bodies were found, said the men apparently "died of carbon monoxide poisoning. They died a painless death. It was like lying down and going to sleep."

Ashby was one of the members of two six-man teams trained in mine rescue operations who worked at the mine site since their arrival Wednesday night.

Throughout the search operation, mine officials kept an optimistic air.

When rescue workers explored a half mile into the caverns without sighting the men, Clayton Tonnemaker, another Cargill vice president, said, "It's an excellent sign that they are far away."

U.S. Sells Gold to Britain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department reported today sales of $771.2 million in U.S. gold to the United Kingdom during the fourth quarter of last year.

The sales indicate the magnitude of speculative gold buying following devaluation of the British pound.

The department also said Algeria purchased $149.6 million in U.S. gold during the period, the second largest purchase during the quarter.

The report was the first official indication that speculative gold buying on the London market following a devaluation exceeded $1 billion.

The United States makes up 99 per cent of all the gold sold on the London market and this shows up in Treasury figures as sales to the United Kingdom.

Net sales to Britain during 1967 totaled $876.5 million, the highest amount since 1958.

The total U.S. gold loss for the fourth quarter exceeded $1 billion, including $953.3 million in sales to foreign governments and $58.9 million in domestic sales for industrial and artistic use.

The total 1967 gold drain was $1.17 billion, including $1 billion in sales to foreign governments.

Other major transactions in the fourth quarter included a $100 million gold purchase from Canada and gold sales of $35 million to Italy, $21.1 million to Iraq and $11.6 million to Surinam.

During 1967, these nations sold gold to the United States: Canada, $150 million; Peru, $35 million; and Greece $19 million.

One Thing for Sure, Girl Scout Program Produces Fine Citizens

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

Do you get "all shook up" when you open your daily paper or favorite magazine and read about the hippie movement? The communications breakdown between youth and adults? Drug experimentation? Youth protest marches? Do you shake your head and ask, "What's the world coming to?"

If that's your situation we are describing, then you must be a member of that minority group of Americans known as Adults. As an adult, you may wonder or even worry about the situation, but do you sincerely try to do your part to correct it?

Youth is looking for new and creative ways of living. There is more free time than ever before, as the result of labor saving devices which virtually eliminate chores and household tasks. "I don't have anything to do!" is the cry heard too often from youth.

Strange as it may seem, adults with the same advantages of mechanical marvels to assist in work usually moan, "I don't have enough time."

Can the two groups, youth and adult, come together harmoniously in any activity today? Is there any hope of a blending of two worlds that seem miles apart but, in truth, had so much of the same basis?

The Girl Scout program is designed for broad application to fit the needs of girls in the many situations and conditions existing in our country. It recognizes that an important set of values is of inestimable worth — just as a set of false values can be a stumbling block for life.

A young person is confronted with a battery of patterns of values from a variety of sources — family, church, school, and the organizations to which that person belongs. Notice the first source in the above list was Family. We could just as easily have said Home, for directly or indirectly, that is the greatest source of influence. Patterns of behavior set by adults at home play the greatest role in behavior patterns developed by youth.

Tomorrow, March 10, begins Girl Scout Week. We salute those in scouting who train girls in the constructive use of leisure, the establishment of living standards to be used in and out of future homes, and the awareness of which responsibilities or activities to decline or accept.

Elizabeth Sheehy, Assistant Director of the Girl Scout Program Development Division, explained that Girl Scouting can help young people "learn how to work with others, give them opportunities to express and initiate ideas, open up new and adventurous opportunities for them and instill in them the values of service and responsible citizenship."

Do you know some girl who is a "good scout" in her daily living? She would, no doubt, be a good Girl Scout, if she isn't already. For further information about joining the local Girl Scouts, call Mrs. Gail Sinyard or Mrs. Howard Jackson.

Election in House Being Pondered

By WILLARD H. MOBLEY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Politicians guessing about what would happen if no presidential candidate won a majority of the electoral votes next November aren't having just one nightmare — there are two.

The first is over how to win the presidency by means of an election in the House which would be required if no candidate had enough Electoral College ballots.

The second one involves the vice presidency and succession to the White House.

Political analysts are treating as a real possibility the chance that former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace's third party might siphon off enough electoral votes to leave neither a Republican nor a Democrat with the required 270 Electoral College votes.

To set up such a hypothetical problem they credit Wallace with the 35 votes from Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and South Carolina and assume enough drainage of ballots from regular parties elsewhere to create upsets and leave the major candidates in virtual deadlock.

That would throw the presidential contest into the House of Representatives with each state having just one vote.

Presumably the intralegal election vote would follow straight party lines and the party in control of a majority of state delegations would win.

But suppose the third-party states remained behind their man and neither a Democrat nor a Republican could muster the required 26 of the 50 delegations for a winning majority.

If the third-party supporters made no deal with one or the other major party, a deadlock could last until the next election, without a real president. The off-year election might change House makeup enough for a decision in two years instead of four.

That is where the vice presidency comes in.

Under the Constitution, in case of House election for a president, the task of naming a vice president falls to the Senate.

The Senate's selection for vice president becomes acting president if the House cannot settle on a chief executive.

The senators have one vote each in the election of such a man, so party control in the chamber would be a big element.

Presumably the Democrats would win as things stand now. They have a heavy majority and even the staunchest Republicans sound wistful when they talk about taking command in the Senate this year.

But if a Republican presidential candidate squeezed through in a House election and the Senate remained under Democratic control there might be a party split between the two offices.

A current book by Russell Baker of the New York Times staff, "Our Next President: The Incredible Story of What Happened in the 1968 Elections," traces a long series of intricate and wholly fictional developments through that maze to the election of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., as acting president until 1972.

Baker lets his fictional Kennedy get President Johnson's presidency nod for the vice presidency to strengthen Johnson's position at the polls, with Hubert H. Humphrey shifted to secretary of state.

In the Baker version Johnson stays in House deadlocked with the GOP candidate, Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York.

U.S. Officer In Charge of Critical Area

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Appointment of Lt. Gen. William B. Rosson as commander of a new northern headquarters in South Vietnam puts an Army general in charge of a critical area which until now was considered almost exclusively a Marine Corps domain.

As commander of "Provisional Corps, Vietnam," Rosson will run the looming battle for the Sanh—defended entirely by U.S. Marines and some South Vietnamese rangers—and any new fighting for Hue or north of it in Quang Tri Province and just below the demilitarized zone.

Rosson's appointment was seen by some observers as an effort to bring the threatened sector under closer control of Gen. William C. Westmoreland, chief of all U.S. forces in Vietnam, and his command in Saigon.

Some newspaper accounts implied that the move reflected Army dissatisfaction with the way the Marines were operating in South Vietnam's northern provinces, known as the 1st Corps area.

The reports prompted Westmoreland last Wednesday to take the unusual step of issuing a public statement in defense of the Marines.

He expressed "great admiration" for the Marines, from their commander, Lt. Gen. Robert E. Cushman, "down to the lowest private," and said he was greatly distressed by reports that he felt otherwise.

Nevertheless, it has been an open secret in Saigon that the Army wanted a bigger hand in running events in the north, where until the latter part of last year the only American troops were Marines.

In early February, Westmoreland sent his deputy, Gen. Creighton W. Abrams to Phu Bai, near Hue, to set up a new northern command to be known as "MACV Forward" — a forward extension of the Military Assistance Command, Vietnam in Saigon.

Under the new set-up, Abrams returns to Saigon after less than a month in the north, his command replaced by Rosson's new "Provisional Corps."

The official reason given for Abrams' return was that his job in the north was virtually completed. That job, the announcement said, was to effect coordination among Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force units in the area.

Some newsmen, however, reported the Marines were unhappy at the imposing of Abrams, a four-star Army commander, over the three-star Marine command of Cushman.

Cushman now remains technically and administratively in over-all command of the 1st Corps area—the five northern provinces. In practice, Rosson will be in direct tactical charge of the two northernmost provinces and Cushman in the three others.

One effect of Rosson's appointment will be to inject considerably more Army officers into top staff echelons involved with the north.

Youth Killed in Wreck at Fort Smith

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jerry Ree, 17, of Fort Smith was killed and two other persons injured Thursday afternoon in a two-vehicle accident about five miles west of here on Arkansas 10.

State Police said Bill Sewell and Richard Brandy, both 17 and both of Fort Smith, were seriously injured. Authorities said the youths were on their way to Little Rock to watch Fort Smith Northside play in the Class AAA state basketball tournament.

Officers said the youths' car, driven by Sewell, collided with a dump truck driven by David Todd, 27, of Little Rock. Authorities said the accident occurred when the westbound truck turned left in front of the car.
